

East Tennessee Roots

Historical/Genealogical Magazine

ISBN #0885-4025

Volume 9, Number 1

Published May, 2001

Feature

- Sevierville Republicanism 12
John B. Waters, Jr., reminisces about political shenanigans in his native town.

Articles

- North Carolina Land Grants 1
Introduction to the major project starting in the next issue; also John Carter and the Carter family.
- What's Your Opinion? 17
You spoke – we listened!
- East Tennessee Marriages 22
Which ones exist and where to get 'em.
- Greeneville College's Dialectic Adelpic Society 64
A young mens' debating society in 1819.

Family Records

- Heirs of James Thompson 59
Widow Elizabeth Donnell testified in 1796 that his heirs were Esther McSpadden, Mary Weir, and Jean Cowan.
- Obituary of William McElwee 59
Died in Roane County in 1885, aged 87.

County Records

- Censuses 1791, 1795, 1800, 1810, and 1820 4
Yes, the individual schedules are gone, but you can still learn a lot from the summaries!
- Meigs County School Population for 1838 28
Heads-of-households and number of pupils 6-16.
- Jefferson County Will Book 1792-1810. Part 1 35
A transcription of the wills, plus probate information from County Court Minutes.
- Knox County 1820 Census of Manufactures 50
Of Knox County's 103 establishments, 60 were distilleries which produced 99,115 gallons of whiskey!

Regular Columns

- Contents of Genealogical Societies' Recent Periodicals 60
- Try These Websites 66
- New Books on the Market 66
- Map of Locations Mentioned in this Issue 67
- Queries #1-#101, Plus Some From Our Website 68
- Surname Index 81