

- Sun. Nov. 1      Communication from Peter Staub about prospects for the new hotel planned for the corner of Main and Gay Streets.
New Richelieu addition to the Hotel Vendome will soon be fully opened.
- Tues. Nov. 3      The new hotel - only $40,000 more needed to secure magnificent hotel to cost not less than a quarter of a million dollars. Almost a column.
- Wed. Nov. 4      Fred Ault Bivouac's entertainment last night at Staub's Theater. Largely attended, strictly instructive and interesting affair.
- Thurs. Nov. 5
- Fri. Nov. 6
- Sat. Nov. 7      City Council proceedings. Central Presbyterian Church organized last night at Patterson's Hall on N. Crozier St.
Welsh Choral Society met last night. Won several prizes at Chattanooga and had about $75.00 after all expenses had been settled.
Young Men's Institute gave entertainment at the St. Anselms Union Hall on Prince Street last night. It is a Roman Catholic organization for literary and educational purposes, the only Secret Society sanctioned by the church. Gives program.
- Sun. Nov. 8      Clipping from Atlanta Constitution says Mr. Will Richards from Knoxville is ~~ixix~~ visiting there for a few days, one of the finest basso siigers ever heard in the South, amateur musician but true artist. Superb voice
Father Ryan's Conquered Banner was rendered at the Fred Ault Bivouac celebration last Tuesday evening. The poem was written in Knoxville in 1865, Ryan being stationed here then. First copies were circulated among prominent citizens of southern sympathies in the city.
Society column, not significant.
Stock of two hotel associations will be merged. Tells the men interested and present at meeting.
- Tues. Nov. 10
- Wed. Nov. 11
- Thurs. Nov. 12      McCrary and Branson annual art exhibition to begin today. Tells a few things which will be on exhibit, including 8 ft. caster model of the figure of a Confederate soldier, executed by Branson, the marble duplicate of which will be placed on the Bethel Cemetery monument to be unveiled next May.
- Fri. Nov. 13      First regular meeting of the Science Club was held at the Experiment Station building of the University last evening gives members present and topics discussed.
Church sociables held last night at Broad St. Methodist Church, First M. E. Church and Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Some comments involving personalities of prominent leaders of that period.
- Sat. Nov. 14
- Sun. Nov. 15      D. M. Rose purchased the Arthur residence on Hill St, about 10 acres laid out in landscaped gardens, etc. With conservatories etc.
Society notes not significant.
East Tennessee Sanitarium now open to patients. Two miles west of Gay St. on Cumberland Ave., formerly Kingston Pk.
- Tues. Nov. 17      November 15, 1876 Herman Spiro of Knoxville and Miss Fanny Schwartzwuld of Newark, New Jersey were married. Last night they celebrated Crystal Wedding at their home 68 Hill St.
- Wed. Nov. 18      Centennial Association meeting last night was slimly attended. "Put up or Shut Up." LaMaro House now leased by the Whiteheads from Judge Sneed andn the hotel will open January 1892. Carpenter and Painter will work extensively, installing among other improvements a system of electric call bells.

Thurs. Nov. 19

Fri. Nov. 20

Barnes      ussell

Marriage of Miss Mamye and Mr. J. R. Ford. She is daughter of A. A. Barnes, Esq. and lives at their hospitable and pleasant country home "Belle Isle"