

vol 2 #94, Tuesday, 20 Oct 1846 (DLC)(TKL,mf)

The undersigned will sell, at public auction, in Moorsburg, Hawkins county, on the 3d day of December next. . one frame house and lot. . J M & R P Moore.

Married, in Maryville, on the 15th inst, by Rev Fielding Pope, the Rev Campbell Boyd, to Miss Mary E Spillman, all of Blount county.

Died, at his residence, Rocky Springs, Grainger county, Tennessee, at 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ A.M., on Sunday, 11th inst, Ethelred Williams, in the 73d year of his age. Mr Williams was born in Edgefield county, North Carolina, of English ancestors. Having been left an orphan in his boyhood, the eldest of a numerous family, he applied himself sedulously to a Clerk's desk in the office of the Secretary of State of North Carolina, until he had comfortably provided for his younger brothers and sisters, when, finding his health much impaired, leaving them all his earnings, he set out, with a light purse, when just entered into his majority, to seek health and wealth in "The wilds of Tennessee." Having explored the then new Territory, east and west, at the repeated solicitation of the late James King, of Abingdon, Virginia, he formed a mercantile connection with him, and commenced business at Cheek's X Roads, Tennessee, whence he removed to Bean's Station, where he prosecuted a steady, useful, honorable and lucrative business until 1821, when he moved to Rocky Springs, where he has since made his home, except a few years spent in Knoxville. The loss of a beloved wife, a most amiable and excellent woman, about twelve years since, so deeply afflicted him as to bring on an attack of paralysis from which he has never rallied, but has been since gradually sinking. For the last six months, he has suffered much pain, but his mind has been calm, and his patience exemplary, till finally God in mercy has, we trust, taken him to his rest. Baptized into the Church in infancy, he always retained fond longings for his Spiritual Mother, and was deeply gratified and comforted by the holy rite of Confirmation at the hands of the Rt Rev Bishop Otey, during the last year. He died with calm resignation, expressing a child like confidence in his God. Quiescat in pace. Alfred J Miller, Lreat

Died, on the 12th inst, Lucy Penniman, infant daughter of Perez Dickinson, Esq, aged about four months.

Died, on the 29th of Sept, 1846, at his residence in Bradley county, Tennessee, Hon John O Cannon, Judge of the third judicial circuit. Judge Cannon had been for some time deeply afflicted with consumption, which gradually stole away his life, and terminated in robbing society of one of its most worthy members. He promised great usefulness to ~~suppression~~ ~~of vice~~ community by a firm and efficient administration of law, a vigorous suppression of vice, and the promotion of good order. In his official capacity, he held a strong claim upon the confidence and respect of the community and circuit over whose legal interests and business he was called to preside. As a citizen, he was a man of worth, always maintaining a high and unblemished character for the strictest integrity and manly generosity. Courteous and affable in his deportment among his neighbors he always regarded their rights, and was ever ready to relieve their distresses. In short, he was the able jurist, the manly citizen, the dignified and unostentatious scholar, the affectionate father and worthy husband. He has gone from among us, leaving many to regret him as an irreparable loss to community and his family. Expressing a strong confidence of his future acceptance with God, he died in peace. (Tribune.)

Vol 2 #95, Tuesday, 27 Oct 1846 (DLC)(TKL,mf)

City Hotel, Knoxville, Tennessee. David S Danner, formerly of Taylor's Hotel, Winchester, Virginia, has become Proprietor of the above House and respectfully solicits a share of the public patronage. No effort will be spared to give general satisfaction. Oct 27, 1846.