

East Tennessee Roots

Historical/Genealogical Magazine

ISBN #0885-4025

Volume 9, Number 4

Published Summer, 2004

Features

- Views of Elizabethton, Carter County, Tennessee 271
Pictures of the historic district of this historic town.
- Logging Camp Life and How it Ended in a Fire in Jeffreys Hell, 06 Sep 1925 293
Bertha Coppenger recalled living in the Monroe County logging camps and how a firestorm took her husband's life.
- South of French Broad River: Petitions of the Inhabitants to the North Carolina Legislature, November, 1788 304
When the State of Franklin collapsed they were in trouble! Read their pleas and see copies of their actual signatures! Does any other record provide such a listing of these illegally-settled inhabitants?!
- Treaty of Dumplin Creek, 10 Jun 1785 307-a Lands south of the French Broad and Big Pigeon Rivers.
- Letter from Alexander Outlaw to Gov. Caswell, 08 Oct 1786 307-a
- Treaty of Coyatee, 03 Aug 1786 307-c
Lands on the east side of the Tennessee (now Little Tennessee) River.
- Subject Index to East Tennessee Roots Volumes 2-9 347

County Records

- Carter County 1798 Tax List 274
Includes Johnson Co. and part of Unicoi Co. See the images for yourself!

Family Records

- The Lean Years: A True Story of Archie Campbell 292
Hard times for Grandpappy in the cold Knoxville winter of 1937.
- Amanda Morgan Park Obituary, 25 Dec 1900 303
Former Knoxvilleian died in St. Louis, MO, at nearly 91 years of age.
- Life and Genealogy of Tri-Cities Banking Leader Leslie Driver 355
Where to find this genealogy.

Regular Columns

- Map of Locations Mentioned in This Issue 354
- Queries 356
- Surname Index 360

Cover: The covered bridge over the Doe River in Elizabethton, Carter County, Tennessee.